- Quite simply; bold and blissful instrumental music for 5 acoustic guitars, fronted by the astute finger work of Dutchman, John van der Veer. Now being hailed as the 21st Century 'Sky'.
- Featuring some of the finest musicians from across Europe. Including:
 - Arnold van Dongen (acoustic guitar)
 - Marcel Fisser (acoustic guitar)
 - Jaap Kwakman (acoustic guitar)
 - Pablo Minoli (acoustic bass guitar)
- Captured with ranged and creative mic technique, the unedited live recordings, mixed by Danny Rosendahl at Sound Production Studios, reflect John van der Veer's dynamic and diverse skill as a composer.
- The album features a crystal clear guitar only version of Albatross, originally by Fleetwood Mac, beautifully arranged by van der Veer.
- The music John van der Veer has written for the Ark, is firmly based on his classical background, his fascination for combining very different musical styles and media compositions
- The Ark transcends genre and style. The music itself is a combination of guitar techniques, including flamenco, classical, western and gypsy steel string.
